The senior yearbook quote from high school was taken from Kurt Bonegut's Titansairen: The purpose of human life is to love a loved one, no matter who you control. As I first read the book, I can still remember how I felt when I first read it many times. There was something completely pure and true about it, and the words were so eloquently tied up that they provoked more anger in my adolescent mind than the angry pop of early 2005.
